"WASHINGTON SENTINEL." PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washing ton, in September, a political newspaper, un-r the name of the WASHINGTON SENTI-

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and earnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States, it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an independent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its views. It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will seek public support by the bold avowal of the sentiments which are common to the genuine Democracy of the Union, and by the condemnafrom of all such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United States. The SENTINEL will maintain, as a fundamental truth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which, also they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their separate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond these thus delegated, is, therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own greation.

The SENTINEL will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding the latter, it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former. With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the SENTINEL will take as the principles of its action, that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair in-terpretation of its language and spirit; and that it shall not seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted, and all granted powers must be used for no purpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the for respect to the internal administration of the Government, the SENTINEL will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to incuicate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic in ternal policy:—that this Government will best promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States, by being less ambitions to exercise receives and more anxious to preserve liberty; and power, and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the manage-ment of all their domestic concerns—while it contents itself with guarding the confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common interests, and defence of the common rights, and honor of the States composing it.

The Sentinel will advocate such a progressive The ENTINEL will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will suit itself to the exigencies, and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality and make its highest ends consist with the strictest principles of justice. The real interests of the country, upon each occasion demanding attention, will be its guide in the course the SENTINEL will rom abroad with our domestic concerns, will tries, unless by their foreign or colonial policy our peace should be threatened, our security endan-gered, or our interests invaded. For when the selfish interests of other nations prompt a foreign or colonial policy which infringes upon our rights and places in the pathway of our commerce a dangerous and unfriendly rival, such a policy musbe resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, by

Our foreign policy should, indeed, be defensive; but to be properly defensive, it must sometimes be apparently aggressive. Our administration should be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world is full of investigations. be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world is full of important movements, commercial and political, deeply concerning American trade and American power. It is time we had an American foreign policy. We must have it. We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destiny, than every other people. We occupy the best portion of a continent, with so neighbors but a colony, and a worn-out, anarchical despotism. We are the only people whose own land, without colonial defendencies, is washed by the two great occans of ies, is washed by the two great oceans o the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life, and to human progress—our mineral and manufacturing resources more vast—our facilities and capacity for miernal and foreign commerce more extended than those of any other people living under one government. A continent, to a great extent, un-explored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth s at our feet. European trade seeks the great Las: through avenues which are at our doors, or must be made through our own limits. Europe, Asia, Africa, and the isles of the sea, lying all around us, look to us as the rising power, through the agency of whose example, and ever widening and extending, though peaceful influences, the bless-ings of liberty, civilization, and religion, are desined to triumph over the barbarism and supersti tion of the milions of the world. And shall such a people refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and act upon the high mission to which it is called:
A mission so full of hope, though so laden with responsibility, which, if properly directed, must make our confederacy the harbinger of peace to the world, as well as the peaceful arbiter of its

The SENTINEL will, therefore, advocate a bole and carnest foreign policy, such as the condition of the country demands; but it will advocate it under the flag of the country—nowhere else. Its foreign policy must be consistent with the spotless hone and unimpeachable good faith of the country. T be respectable at home and abroad, and to be great in the eyes of the world, it must ask for nothing but what is right, and submit to nothing that is wrong. It must be liberal and magnanimous to the rights of others, and arm and immoveable in insisting on its own. It must, in fine, be true to its own interests, rights, and honor—it cannot then be false to those of other nations.

Such, then, is the chart by which we shall be guided. Independent and free, we shall endeavor to be honest and truthful. The true friends of democratic principles we shall cordially support and defend. Its enemies in the field or in ambush we shall oppose, and on all proper occasions denounce.

To our future brethren of the press we extend the hand of friendly greeting. The Sentinel is the rival of no press of its own party—the personal nemy of none of the other.

The present Democratic Administration has our best wishes for its success in the establishment of the great principles upon which it came into power, and in its honest labors to attain such an end it will find the SENTINEL its friend and coadjutor.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN DINWII DIE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, FOR SALE. RARE OPPORTUNITY for investmen A is now presented to capitalists or a companiesiring to combine hotel-keeping with mercantile and general mechanical pursuits.

The multiplicity of my professional and private engagements alone induces me to offer for sal-one half of the whole of the extensive and com-modious Hotel and appurtenances at Dinwiddicourt-house—including the land which surround the court-house, about 400 acres, the offices and residences, together with all the numerous privileges connected with the property. The Hothas recently been thoroughly repaired, painted, newly enclosed and every way fitted out for the accommodation of the public. It is situated at the county seat immediately on the Booking and Percently seat and Pe county seat, immediately on the Boydton and Petersburg Plank Road, within fourteen miles of the city of Petersburg, and thirty-six miles of the city of Richmond. The South-side railroad passes within eight miles, and the Petersburg and Raleigh railroad within eleven miles of this place. This establishment, with the offices and residences, the store and blacksmith's shop, the extensive stablein complete repair, and capable of accommodating two hundred horses, a spacious and unfailing iclouse, and other convenient out-houses attached together with a church and a male and female Academy on the land; an extensive Foundry nov. Academy on the land; an extensive Foundry now in process of erection by an intelligent and judicious company, and a number of handsome residences adjacent, owned by the subscriber autothers, already constitutes an attractive village which by enlightened liberality on the part of the owner, in inviting and encouraging persons en gaged in the different commercial and mechanics pursuits to settle here, may be quickly made an important place of business and greatly tributar, to all the leading interests of the city of Peters

The Hotel has a large and rapidly increasing The national policy of the world in this age is essentially aggressive. In the growing sense of weakness of some of the nations of the Old World, and the ambitions restlessness of others, a comand yield large and certain profits. The vicinity of this Hotel to Petersburg, its ease of acces-from every quarter, the well established healthful ness of the place, together with the agreeable society around, render it a pleasant summer re treat for families and invalids from the heat andust of the cities. The tract of land is chiefly i woods, and contains an inexhaustible supply of woods, and contains an inexpansion of land timber for plank, rails, and fuel. The open land timber for plank, rails, and fuel. The so is naturally very good, and susceptible of the highest degree of improvement.

The place is fully supplied with the pures water, from a well and a number of springs. The almost unexampled success of the different workof internal improvement passing through the country, together with the general prosperity of the country, has greatly enhanced the value of all lands and places of business, contiguous to these improvements, and at no place has property more rapidly or steadily advanced than on this plant road, in the neighborhood of Dinwiddie Court Each successive sale of real estate shows a stri

ing sdvance upon previous sales, and admonishes purchasers to lauy at once

From facts within my personal knowledge, I an satisfied that 20 per centum on an estimate invest ment of $25,000 can be realized by a sagaciou owner or company annually from this property i ts present situation.

The confident opinion of the most judicious and prudent business men is, that this property has stready greatly increased in value, and that it prospective value, looking to—as a certain event the speedy development of all its advantages— comprising as they do all the elements of an in-portant village, is incalculably great. Nothin could tempt me to forego the certain great pecuni ary advantage, that will assuredly accrue, in a few years, to an enterprising owner of this property but the earnest desire on my part to diminish the cares of business and to devote my energies in their accostomed and more appropriate sphere. I should prefer to sell one-half of this property to an enterprising and capable business man o company, who would take charge of the whot-concern, but if desired, by purchasers, I will se-sell the whole. Possession can be had whenever the sale is made, or at the end of the present year as may be desired. The terms will be made in-eral and accommodating as to time. By the punc-tual payment of interest as it accross the deferresyments may run for a series of years. The property will be shown by Major Anderso or me, both residing on the premises, to any ondesiring to see it. Letters directed to me at Dirwiddie Court House will be promptly answered Should this property not be sold before 18th or September next, (Dinwidele county court day, of which due notice will be given through the papers.) one-half or the whole of the property with then and there be offered to the highest bidder a public suction.
